Prince Edward Island e-Bike (Power Assisted Bicycle) Incentive Program

Terms and Conditions

The Government of Prince Edward Island is offering eligible Islanders and Organizations a $500 rebate for those who purchase an e-Bike (Power Assisted Bicycle). The purpose of the program is to encourage greater adoption of Active Transportation options among Islanders. E-Bikes are a cleaner and more efficient mode of transportation when compared to single passenger vehicles.

Eligibility Requirements:

- The purchaser of the e-Bike must be a PEI resident or a non-profit, business, public agency, or entity operating or registered in PEI (including Island municipalities, First Nations, Indigenous Organizations, and organizations that support Indigenous Peoples, but excluding provincial, crown, and federal government agencies)
- A non-profit, business, public agency, or entity operating or registered in PEI (including Island municipalities, First Nations, Indigenous Organizations, and organizations that support Indigenous Peoples, but excluding provincial, crown, and federal government agencies) qualify for five (5) incentives per calendar year
- Individual Island residents are eligible for one incentive per year. Families purchasing more than one e-Bike can still qualify for the Incentive program, however, each Incentive must be tied to a different name
- E-Bikes retailing for $1,200 (inclusive of sales and discounts, but exclusive of taxes and delivery fees) or more will be eligible for the Incentive
- E-Bikes must meet the following specs to qualify:
 - the electric motor must be 500 watts or less;
 - have two or three wheels that touch the ground;
 - a maximum speed of 32 km/h;
 - a maximum weight of 120kg
 - and all other regulations as set out by the Highway Safety Act
- Some retailers in Prince Edward Island will be offering a Point-of-Sale Incentive for e-Bikes. Islanders can also purchase e-Bikes online direct from a manufacturer and apply for the rebate. Same terms and conditions apply.

Further program details:

e-Bikes purchased through the following channels are ineligible:

- Private sales;
- Conversion kits or standard bikes with a Conversion kit

Retailers offering Point-of-Sale incentives must submit the following information:

- Complete the Prince Edward Island Power Assisted Bicycle Incentive Program Application Form for Retailers in full.
- Submit the application and a copy of the bill of sale to EVIncentive@gov.pe.ca
- Your Vendor Registration Number (VRN) for payment must be on the e-Bike Rebate Application. If you do not have a VRN you can apply for one here: <https://www.princeedwardisland.ca/en/information/finance/register-government-vendor>
