EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 establishes definitions for the purposes of the regulations.

SECTION 2 clarifies the term of the election expenses period and the rules that the campaign contributions and election expenses bylaw of a municipality must contain relating to the time at which election expenses may be incurred.

SECTION 3 requires the bylaw to specify the maximum allowable election expenses for candidates for mayor, not to exceed $50,000, and councillor, not to exceed $10,000.

SECTION 4 requires the bylaw to specify who may be a contributor to a candidate's campaign, the maximum amount that may be contributed to any one candidate for mayor or councillor, and the maximum amount that a candidate and his or her spouse may contribute to the candidate's campaign, and to prohibit contributions in excess of those maximums.

SECTION 5 requires the bylaw to require each candidate to keep the specified records of campaign contributions and election expenses.

SECTION 6 requires the bylaw, at a minimum, to require that each candidate disclose all campaign contributions received and election expenses incurred, in the form specified.

SECTION 7 requires the bylaw to prohibit the filing of a false, misleading or incomplete statement of campaign contributions and election expenses by a candidate.

SECTION 8 requires the bylaw to prohibit candidates from accepting campaign contributions from anonymous sources, and to provide that if an anonymous contribution is received the candidate is required to donate it to a registered charity of the candidate's choice within 30 days.

SECTION 9 requires the bylaw to provide that if a candidate's disclosure statement shows a monetary surplus, and the candidate withdraws before election day, a named contributor may request the return of a pro-rated portion of the contributor's contribution as specified. Otherwise, the bylaw shall provide that any monetary surplus must be turned over to the chief administrative officer to be used for municipal purposes.

SECTION 10 requires the bylaw to prohibit a candidate from carrying forward election expenses from one election to a subsequent election.

SECTION 11 requires the bylaw to specify how documents required to be filed are to be dealt with. Documents to be filed with the municipal electoral officer must be delivered to the chief administrative officer of the municipality within two weeks. The chief administrative officer is required to retain the documents in accordance with the records retention and disposal schedule of the municipality. The documents are public and may be inspected at the municipal office on request. The chief administrative officer will prepare a report summarizing the campaign contributions and election expenses of each candidate, forward it to council and post it in a conspicuous place in the municipality or on the website of the municipality.

SECTION 12 requires the bylaw to provide that each candidate must retain the specified records for not less than seven years, whether the candidate was elected or not, and authorizes the municipal electoral officer or the chief administrative officer, as the case may be, to request additional information about them. If a candidate fails or refuses to provide that information or the information provided is unsatisfactory, the municipal electoral officer or the chief administrative officer may refer the matter to the council to be dealt with as set out in subsection (4). If a complaint is received from an elector relating to the candidate's disclosure statement, the municipal electoral officer or the chief administrative officer, as the case may be, may deal with it under subsection (6) or refer the matter to the council to be dealt with under subsection (4).

SECTION 13 requires the bylaw to provide for the offence of contravening its provisions and to specify the penalty for a contravention.

SECTION 14 requires the bylaw to provide that a candidate who is convicted of an offence for a contravention of the bylaw is disqualified from office and required to resign immediately. The bylaw may provide that where, on application by the candidate, a judge of the Supreme Court is of the opinion that the contravention arose through inadvertence or by reason of an honest mistake, the candidate is not required to resign.

SECTION 15 provides that the specified requirements relating to campaign contribution and election expense limits and time periods do not apply to candidates in an election in 2018.

SECTION 16 provides for the commencement of the regulations.

person not in need

(2) Where the Director believes it is necessary to support the applicant's continued employment, the Director may extend the grant of special assistance under subsection (1) for an additional period of time. Extension

4. These regulations come into force on July 1, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 increases the maximum value of liquid assets an applicant may have and qualify for short-term financial assistance from $50 to $2,500.

It increases the maximum value of liquid assets a single applicant may have and qualify for long-term financial assistance:

- from $200 to $2,500, where the person has no dependents;
- from a base of $900 to $3,500, from $300 to $500 for each dependent, and from a total of $2,400 to $6,000, where the person has dependents;
- from $900 to $5,000, where the person has a disability but no dependents.

It adds a provision for a single applicant who has a disability and has dependents, allowing for liquid assets of not more than $6,000 plus $500 for each dependent, to a maximum of $8,500.

It also increases the maximum value of liquid assets an applicant who lives with a spouse may have and qualify for long-term financial assistance:

- from a base of $1,200 to $5,000, from $300 to $500 for each dependent, if any, and from a total of $2,400 to $7,500, where neither the applicant nor the spouse have a disability;
- from a base of $1,800 to $10,000, from $300 to $500 for each dependent, if any, and from a total of $2,400 to $12,500, where the applicant or spouse has a disability.

SECTION 2 provides that the exemptions from the calculation of financial resources of an applicant in subsection 13(5) are subject to the new subsection 13(5.1).

It increases the exemption of earned monthly income from the calculation of financial resources of an applicant:

- from $75 per month and 10% of the amounts exceeding that to $250 per month and 30% of amounts exceeding that, for a single applicant
- from $125 per month and 10% of amounts exceeding that to $400 per month and 30% of amounts exceeding that, for an applicant with a spouse or dependents.

It adds an exemption of earned monthly income from the calculation of financial resources of an applicant of $500 per month plus 30% of amounts exceeding that, for an applicant with a disability.

It exempts a child support payment made by a person who has a statutory obligation to support the applicant or a dependent of the applicant from the calculation of financial resources of an applicant.

It provides that the exemption of earned monthly income under clause 13(5)(e) does not apply when calculating the value of an applicant's financial resources for the purpose of determining whether the applicant is a person in need under subsection 6(1).

SECTION 3 permits the Director to grant special assistance for medical, dental and optical expenses for a period of up to 24 months to an applicant who ceases to be a person in need due to his or her employment. It allows the Director to extend the period of time this special assistance is granted where the Director believes it is necessary to support the applicant's continued employment.

SECTION 4 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
