11. These regulations come into force on October 27, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 amends the heading of Part 1 to reflect the addition of section 1.1 to the regulations respecting the application of the Act.

SECTION 2 amends the definition of “family home centre” to reflect that an operator is authorized to provide services to not more than a total of eight children, including the children of the operator. It also amends the definition of “pre-school centre” to refer to children who are three years of age or over but not school-age children, instead of not yet attending school.

It also adds subsection 1(2.1) to the regulations to provide that, for the purposes of the exemption in clause 2(e) of the Act, camps operated for holiday periods means camps operated during school holidays or breaks, which children may be enrolled to attend for not more than 15 consecutive weekdays.

SECTION 3 adds a new section 1.1 to the regulations, which provides that the Act does not apply to early learning and childcare services provided in a shelter or other temporary accommodation for persons in urgent circumstances, such as situations of domestic violence or homelessness.

SECTION 4 adds a new subsection 2(2.1) to the regulations, which provides that an applicant for a license to operate a family home centre does not have to submit a business plan and other information specified in subsection 2(2). It also amends subsection 2(2) of the regulations to reflect that it is subject to the new subsection 2(2.1) and to provide that an applicant for a license to operate a family home centre may submit a description of the area of the residence where services will be provided instead of a floor plan of the centre.

SECTION 5 is amended to reflect that the operator of a family home centre would not be required to update a business plan and certain information in a service plan, as the operator is not required to provide it with an application under section 2. It also amends a clause to reflect that the operator of a family home centre would have submitted a description of the area of the residence where services are to be provided with an application under section 2.

SECTION 6 amends subsection 10(2) of the regulations to provide that the continuing education requirements set out in that provision do not apply to a family home child care provider or a school-age child care provider.

SECTION 7 amends subsection 15(1) of the regulations to provide that the requirement to develop and post behaviour management policies does not apply to the operator of a family home centre.

SECTION 8 amends section 16 of the regulations to provide that the requirement to post a daily schedule does not apply to the operator of a family home centre.

SECTION 9 amends subsection 18(2) of the regulations to increase the maximum number of children to whom an operator of a family home centre may provide services from six to eight children, including any children of the operator.

SECTION 10 amends the Fee Schedule to reduce the fee from $300 to $75 for an application for a certificate where the applicant completed all or a portion of his or her training outside Canada.

SECTION 11 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
